Roger Barnett | Chairman and CEO

Before joining Shaklee, Roger Barnett was the Managing Partner of Activated Holdings LLC, an investment vehicle for a private family holding company, controlling over $2 billion in assets. Roger began his career at the investment banking firm Lazard Frères & Co. He then became President and CEO of Arcade, Inc., which he transformed into the world’s leading sampling company — expanding it from a solely U.S. operation into a global business, multiplying by tenfold the number of products, and entering new industries that significantly increased the total size of the company’s served market. He was also the founder, Chairman and CEO of Beauty.com, which continues to be a leading Internet retailer of cosmetics.

Mr. Barnett received his undergraduate degree from Yale College, his law degree from Yale Law School, and his MBA from Harvard Business School. He has been selected as a Global Leader for Tomorrow by the World Economic Forum (Davos) and is a member of their private investment community. He has also been selected as a Young Leader Forum Fellow by the National Committee on U.S.-China Relations and is a member of the Young President’s Organization. Roger is also a member of the Board of Directors of the Metropolitan Opera Association and is a member of the Health Advisory Council of Columbia Presbyterian Hospital.

Chris Gardner
A Rags-to-Riches Story

From jobless and homeless to self-made millionaire-philanthropist, Chris Gardner has had an incredible life journey, which began after he left the Navy and entered the competitive world of San Francisco high finance. After a series of challenging circumstances, he found himself a “working homeless” man with a toddler son. As a fatherless child, Chris had vowed to never abandon his children. Motivated by this vow, he and his son spent nearly a year moving from shelter to shelter, soup kitchen to soup kitchen. Never giving up, Gardner made an amazing transformation and eventually became a powerful financier. Today he heads his own brokerage firm, which has donated a half million dollars to public education. His inspirational story was recently featured in the Will Smith film, The Pursuit of Happyness.
